

IC 15-5-4

Chapter 4. Incorporation of Certain Associations

IC 15-5-4-1

Authority to incorporate; procedure

Sec. 1. Associations of persons for the advancement of the agricultural interests of the state, known as the State Corn Growers' Association, the State Live Stock Breeders' Association and the State Dairymen's Association, may become incorporated in the following manner: An association of persons known as the State Corn Growers' Association, the State Live Stock Breeders' Association or the State Dairymen's Association may become incorporated by depositing in the office of the secretary of state a certified copy of the articles of the association, with the name assumed and a description and impress of the seal adopted by such association.

(Formerly: Acts 1907, c.264, s.1.)

IC 15-5-4-2

Meetings

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of any such association organized under the provisions of the first section of this chapter to hold, at the city of Indianapolis, or some other place in the state to be selected by such association at its preceding meeting, or by its executive committee prior to the date of meeting, an annual meeting and such auxiliary meetings as may be desired, for the purpose of deliberating and consulting as to the wants, prospects and conditions of the corn, livestock or dairy interests of the people of the state, at which meeting, all persons interested in any or all of these lines of industry may participate.

(Formerly: Acts 1907, c.264, s.2.) As amended by Acts 1978, P.L.6, SEC.25.

IC 15-5-4-3

State appropriations; purposes; compensation of officers

Sec. 3. Such state corn growers' association, state live stock breeders' association, or state dairymen's association, having complied with the provisions of sections 1 and 2 of this chapter, shall be entitled to receive from the state treasury, out of any moneys in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, such sums of money, respectively, as the general assembly may, from time to time, appropriate. Any appropriation so made or so much thereof as may be needed, shall be used only for the securing of speakers for the annual or auxiliary meetings, traveling expenses for the speakers and officers of the association, advertising the meetings, publishing an annual report and the distribution of the same, for medals, trophies, dies, premium ribbons, awards, postage stamps, and clerical services. No officer shall receive any compensation for his services other than his actual expenses incurred in prosecuting the business of the association.

(Formerly: Acts 1907, c.264, s.3; Acts 1937, c.106, s.1.) As amended by P.L.183-1983, SEC.103; P.L.2-1995, SEC.69.